FAST FOOD DIET

Have no money, but I have a plan
Not so funny, I gotta scam Home cooked meals, not for me Gotta eat out tonight, can't you see ch: Jack in the Box, Dairy Queen Pizza Hut, Burger King

Taco Bell, 7-11

Froster Freeze, Baskin Robin
I'm on a fast food diet
I need that greasy diet
On a fast food diet Maybe you should try it

Mom works late so she won't cook She wants me to read in the recipe book Shine that mom! Gimme some money BETTY Crocker's way too funny

Running Amok

Total chaos everywhere
One step beyond the old red scare People panic, they're afraid At home is the place they should have stayed

chorus
Different factions, no real reasons People dying, RUNNING AMOK!

Something went wrong with their way Everyone's waiting for the day Their type of thinking is falling down
Not a building is standing in town
(chorus)
A faux pas that can't be denied

Do all the people have to die
The answer isn't all that clear It's in the hands of most of our peers

Is anarchism the real way We'll probably find out any day
The people who don't even know what It is will contribute to its future
(chorus)
(Anarchy equals dead punks) State!

THE THEME TO FAITH

I went to church last Sunday Got on my knees and began to pray When up on the altar a face appeared Jesus was drinking generic beer
The messiah was on the altar getting drunk My savior's been resurrected as a punk

BORN TO HATE Instrumental

At first I sat there staring in shock
But then the organ player started to rock
He was playing a song by the Sex Pistols Anarchy erupted in all of the pews Christ was gobbing on everyone in the front row He said "you want to be saved but here's something you should know..."

Most of you won't be missed when you die You'll rot in the ground like you were rotten in life
And no amount of prayer will help to erase The damage you've done to the human race

Jesus grabbed the mike and he started to scream
"Why are you misled human beings?
I never said give your money to church!
Don't let these liars hit you where it hurts!"
If there is a god, this is what he'd say 'Cause having a faith shouldn't tax your pay

UNWRITTEN RULES

The patrols are out, looking for n
It's another hard day on the job They're hassling you and they're hassling me While our tax money goes in their wallets
And oh oh oh we've committed a crime We've been standing around too long So do what they say or get kicked in the ass
By the long leg of the law

Unwritten rules, isn't it nice?
They make you feel safer now
And when one dies, ten more are born It's great to know they're on my side

Mom and Dad are asleep at night
When the cops break down the front door They turn the place upside down t Though they don't know what they're looking for In the master bedroom they pull out their clups
And turn those sleeping lumps into a mess
But when they pull off the covers,

The sergeant shrugs and says
"Hey guys! We got the wrong adress!"

THE LADDER

You sure got a lot to say But very little of it to our face You talk talk talk to your friends But talkin' to your friends Won't keep us in our place You've tried to ruin our name
And for the moment you've had success But don't think that you've won 'Cause truth ain't what you say

You had good reason to fight against us We didn't go for the games you played We slapped you in the face!
By challenging the rules you've made Now we're fighting out of a hole
And a whole lot of people Are tying find some dirt Sure, you tried
But just our pride was hurt

The Ladder's gonna fall
And look who will get hurt...

Computer World 1.

sure I'd like to get into the computer world but I can always start tomorrow tomorrow
tomorrow

japanese movie world made for t.v. godzilla show big green feet stomping on angry shits computer terminal fever glow the modern world's too fast or I'm too slow press a button and make things jump no more bombs just t.v. sets ionic-charged little dots cells inside our heads (chorus)

no one's moving--just sitting no one's eating--just shitting interactive television sets you answer them but you don't talk back glowing terminal, glowing set bloodshot eyes are stinging wet digital games, digital numbers our bodies move while our minds slumber (chorus) I love my computer world (2x) computer wires and optical fibers someone else pays my rent the world I made is luminous the life I created spent (chorus)

WHIPPING BOY

Four Stations 2.

he died for my sins/a walk across dirty water a son for a son/a lamb to the slaughter driven to die/waking dreams of suicide a resurrection-my mind (chorus) bad connection-your hands wanna die-no fair a lie-I can't stand four icons for the jaded/three nails on his cross to stop a life that's hated/to play a game that's lost a worthy sacrifice/to a worthless cause

(chorus)
a passion play on calvary/the scene of his infamy I wanna run it again and again/the doom of all faithless men to kill lonely hoping/to laugh at unfunny joking

(chorus)
